

MEMORIAL SERMON BY DR. CRAIGHILL

He Delivered a Most Touching
Memorial to Grand Army.

A LARGE CROWD PRESENT

Lew Wallace Post, Members of U. C. V., U. D. C., P. O. S. of A. and Gainesville Guards, Listen to Elegant Discourse at Holy Trinity Church.

Notwithstanding the fact that the baccalaureate sermon of the University of Florida was delivered at the Tabernacle Sunday morning, attracting a large and representative audience, the elegant new Holy Trinity church was also well filled, the occasion being the memorial sermon, delivered by Rev. Francis H. Craighill, the rector, before Lew Wallace Post, Grand Army of the Republic, under the auspices of which post the service was held.

Through invitation of the G. A. R. the meeting was attended by members of Stonewall Camp, United Confederate Veterans, both chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and the Gainesville Guards, under command of Captain J. W. Blanding, the Guards acting as a guard of honor.

The members of the Grand Army post and P. O. S. of A. formed at the corner of West Liberty and Garden streets, where they were joined by the Guards, about forty strong. From this point the procession marched to the church, where seats had been reserved for them, the members of other organizations being in waiting at the church.

Dr. Craighill's Sermon.

Dr. Craighill took for his theme, "Whosoever Shall Seek to Save His Life Shall Lose It; and Whosoever Loses His Life Shall Preserve It."

In his address, which was one full of inspiring eloquence, the speaker commented upon things appropriate at this time. He commended highly these societies which had been organized to perpetuate these deeds of heroism and bravery, and to reverence the memory of those who were gone. He related touchingly and with favor to the diminishing feeling of dislike which existed for some time after the close of the great struggle between the North and the South, which has been more especially noticeable since the Spanish-American war, when the Northern boy and the Southern shoulder his musket and march side by side to preserve the dignity of the Union—the again united country, which no bond can sever.

During his discourse Dr. Craighill took occasion to pay reverence to the living as well as to the dead, his tribute to the old soldier being particularly impressive.

The music at this service was especially fine, including a solo by Mr. Cadwallader of the Episcopal choir.

In all, the service was one of the most interesting and most touching ever seen in Gainesville, and those who attended were deeply impressed.

MASON TISON'S HORSE.

"Football" is a Winner, and Will Be Put on Track Saturday.

J. Mason Tison, formerly of this city but now engaged in business in Ocala, has recently acquired a fine trotting horse, "Football," which is said to be as fine as any horseflesh in Florida.

Mr. Tison, who was in Gainesville a couple of days ago, states that the horse has a record of 2:06 in harness, and that he will put the animal on the track for a purse of $400 next Saturday. The event will transpire on the Ocala track, and is creating a great deal of interest between the sportsmen throughout that section of the State.

Complimented by Edison.

Earle Kelley of this city, although yet a very young man, probably enjoys the distinction of being the only person in Gainesville, regardless of age or profession, who holds in his possession a personal letter from Thos. A. Edison, the world-renowned inventor and electrician.

Mr. Kelley, who is a son of County Superintendent Dr. J. L. Kelley, is a student of the Gainesville Senior High School, and at the commencement exercises of this school last week, delivered an oration on Edison and his wonderful achievements. Mr. Edison secured a copy of this oration, and its author was surprised, though gratified, to receive from the great inventor a personal letter of compliments upon the same.
